Full job description

Your new company

The firm is a top performer in the Australian market, and is recognised globally as one of the most prestigious and highly desirable firms to work for. This is a great chance for a corporate lawyer to move into a company that outperforms its competitors in terms of its quality of work, client base, and collegiate firm culture.

Your new role

You will be working in an exceptional team of ambitious and high achieving lawyers that have dedicated their work to the corporate sector. There are roles across a few different corporate Partners involving mergers and acquisition, equity capital markets, joint ventures, and other cross-border investments.

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be considered for these roles, you will have the following experience:

- Currently admitted to practice as a Lawyer in Australia
- 2+ years of relevant corporate experience, particularly in M&A and/or ECM
- Asian language skills are high desired for one of the roles

What you'll get in return

You will be offered both domestic and cross-border work in your area of practice, and learn from a dedicated team of lawyers, including Partners who offer direct support and contact with their deals teams. The salary will be excellent, and successful candidates will also receive a desirable benefits package.
